Indiana Masonic Home Foundation

Please take a moment to read through this information on the Indiana Masonic Home Foundation and Compass Park (formally the Indiana Masonic Home.)

Indiana Masonic Home Foundation

The Indiana Masonic Home Foundation (IMHF) was established in 1936 to further implement financial support of Compass Park (Indiana Masonic Home.) They are a separate corporation with a separate Board of Directors to oversee operations and investments of the Foundation.

Further, the Foundation engages in promotional and public relations activities to increase the assets and properties held by the Foundation; communicates to the Masonic membership the charitable need, purpose, and benefits of the Indiana Masonic Home at Compass Park, and provides the necessary professional guidance to help Freemasonry be successful in its benevolent of Freemasonry.

It is important to know that the Foundation fund, gives only its net income or interest to the Home each year. Therefore, gifts to the Foundation have never been spent. Also, gifts are tax-deductible as described in section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Indiana Masonic Home Foundation Gold Card

One area that individuals and their lodges are recognized is through the Indiana Masonic Home Foundation Gold Card program. A "Gold Card" donation is recognized as a potential tax-deductible donation at, or above, the $100 level. This recognition can be completed annually.
