The following are the admissions criteria for the Indiana Masonic Home. There are three types of residency plans at the Indiana Masonic Home (IMH): Fraternal (turnover of assets), Entry Fee and Rental. The Fraternal and Entry Fee plans are contracts where IMH will take care of the resident(s) even if they have or would in the future, exhaust their funds. The rental program is where the resident(s) pays a monthly fee only, and does not have the guarantee of residency for life. The following are the requirements for residency to IMH under each plan:
